2. Children’s Parade – all – action

A reminder that on Saturday 15th June, this weekend, Worthing Children’s Parade will take place. Children who have applied to walk with the school’s character, Zog from the popular Julia Donaldson book, will have dragon ears and stars provided. Please feel free to come down with your children and support the event. We will be meeting at 9.40, for a 10am start from Denton Gardens.

3. Wizard of Oz – all – action

Mrs Cossins’ is running a competition to design the front cover for the Wizard of Oz programme and the publicity posters. All children entering will receive 10 house points and the winner gets 20 and their design printed.

Please can we also ask if anyone has a Dorothy costume that we can borrow for the school production, please can you contact Mrs Cossins’ or the school office as soon as possible.

4. Sports News – all – information

On Tuesday we took a group of boys from across Year 3-5 to Hawthorns for a friendly football match. Everyone played excellently, with the score ending at 11-0. Well done boys.

Bikeability information has been sent out today for the remainder of Year 5 that were absent the last session and Year 6. It will take place on the week commencing 10th & 17th July, if your pupil is in the school production please indicate this when you return your form.

Well done to everyone that took part in Year 6 Sports Day, the cup was won by Epping. We look forward to Year 5 Sports day on Monday. The children are asked to come to school in their PE kits, and can remain in these for the whole day.

All information has been sent via Schools buddy to parents whose children are taking part in the Legacy Games on Wednesday. The children need to be in full PE kit, with suntan lotion and sun hats and have their packed lunch in a disposable bag with extra water. All events, apart from Athletics will finish at 3.15pm.

Dancemania takes place on Thursday evening, dancers are asked to arrive from 5pm and the audience from 6.10. There will be a £1 entrance fee per adult, payable on the door.
