

Example:

NASTY WRITING!

How Can We Avoid Repetition?

Repetition is when something that is said or written is used over and over again, for example:

Gary ate supper when Gary got home. Gary enjoyed the food.

After its first use, instead of repeating 'Gary', we could replace further uses with pronouns to avoid repetition, such as:

Gary ate his supper when he got home. He enjoyed the food.

noun

pronoun

pronoun

alternate noun

We can also replace the noun 'supper' with another noun which means the same thing (or simply use 'it').

Using nouns/pronouns to avoid repetition.

Amy put on Amy's coat and Amy's gloves then Amy left the house and walked out into the rain.

Metacognition

I Do

(Teacher models)

Amy put on her coat and her gloves then she left the house and walked out into the rain.

NASTY WRITING!

Example:

How Can We Avoid Repetition?

Repetition is when something that is said or written is used over and over again, for example:

Gary ate supper when Gary got home. Gary enjoyed the food.

After its first use, instead of repeating 'Gary', we could replace further uses with pronouns to avoid repetition, such as:

Gary ate his supper when he got home. He enjoyed the food.

noun

pronoun

pronoun

alternate noun

We can also replace the noun 'supper' with another noun which means the same thing (or simply use 'it').

Using nouns/pronouns to avoid repetition.

Philip played with Philip's football in Philip's garden.

Philip played with his football in his garden.

Can you spot

the changes

that we have made?

Example:

NASTY WRITING!

How Can We Avoid Repetition?

Repetition is when something that is said or written is used over and over again, for example:

Gary ate supper when Gary got home. Gary enjoyed the food.

After its first use, instead of repeating 'Gary', we could replace further uses with pronouns to avoid repetition, such as:

Gary ate his supper when he got home. He enjoyed the food.

noun

pronoun

pronoun

alternate noun

We can also replace the noun 'supper' with another noun which means the same thing (or simply use 'it').

Using nouns/pronouns to avoid repetition.

Joel ran home. When Joel got home, Joel went to Joel's room.

You Do It Alone

(Independent)