

Empathy

WALT: How can Brahman be everywhere
and in everything?

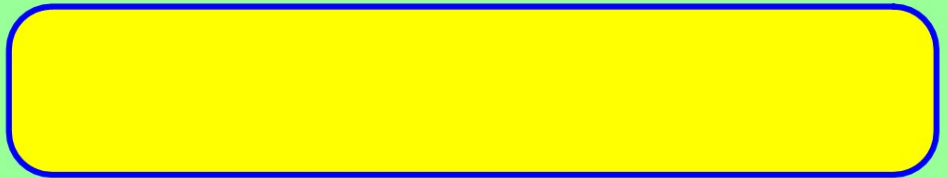

WALT: understand what makes us who we are.

| | | |
|---|--|--|
|  | I can describe some of the characteristics that make me, me, even when I am playing different roles. | |
|  | I can explain some of the different roles I play whilst still being me. | |
|  | I can explain how I may be special in different ways to different people. | |

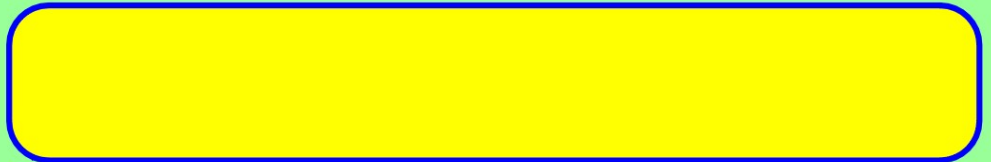

RECALL

What do they mean?

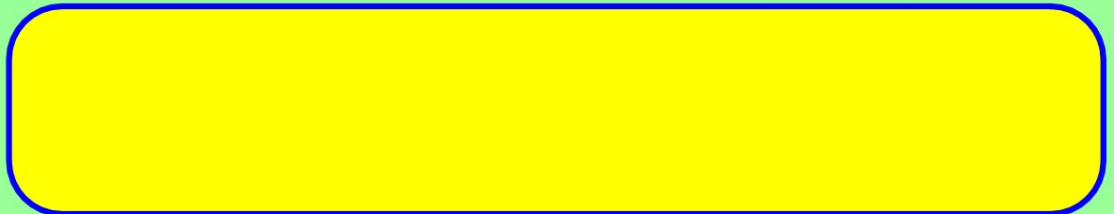

Empathy

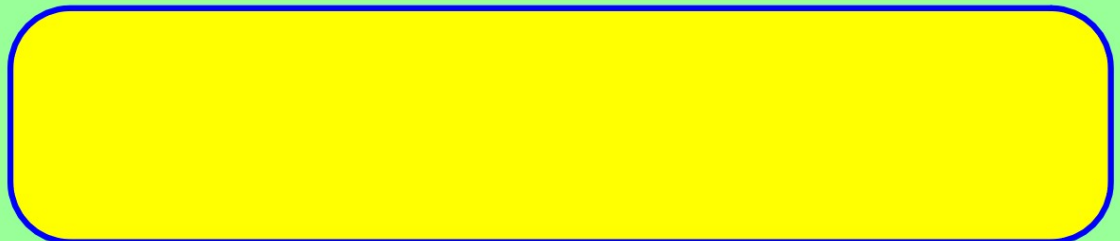

Investigate

Evaluate

Reflect

Answers

What do they mean?

Empathy

The ability to understand and share the feelings of another.

Investigate

The action of looking into something or someone ' formal, systematic examination.

Evaluate

The making of a judgement about the amount, number or value of something.

Reflect

Able to give serious thought or consideration to what is being taught or discussed.

Part 1: Empathy

WALT: understand what makes us who we are.

What do you think these questions mean?

Who am I?

What do I mean to different people?

Who am I at school?

Who am I in my community?

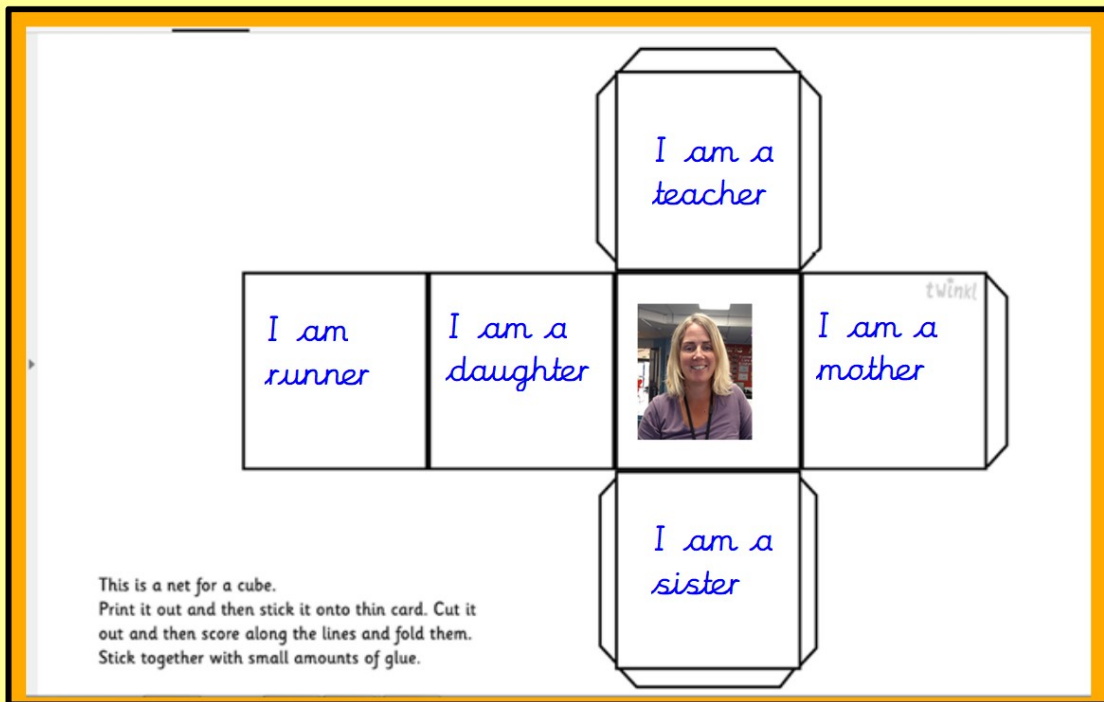

You could say that
I am:

A mother (or father)
A sister (or brother)
A daughter (or son)
A swimmer
A teacher
A friend
An auntie (an uncle)
A runner
A neighbour

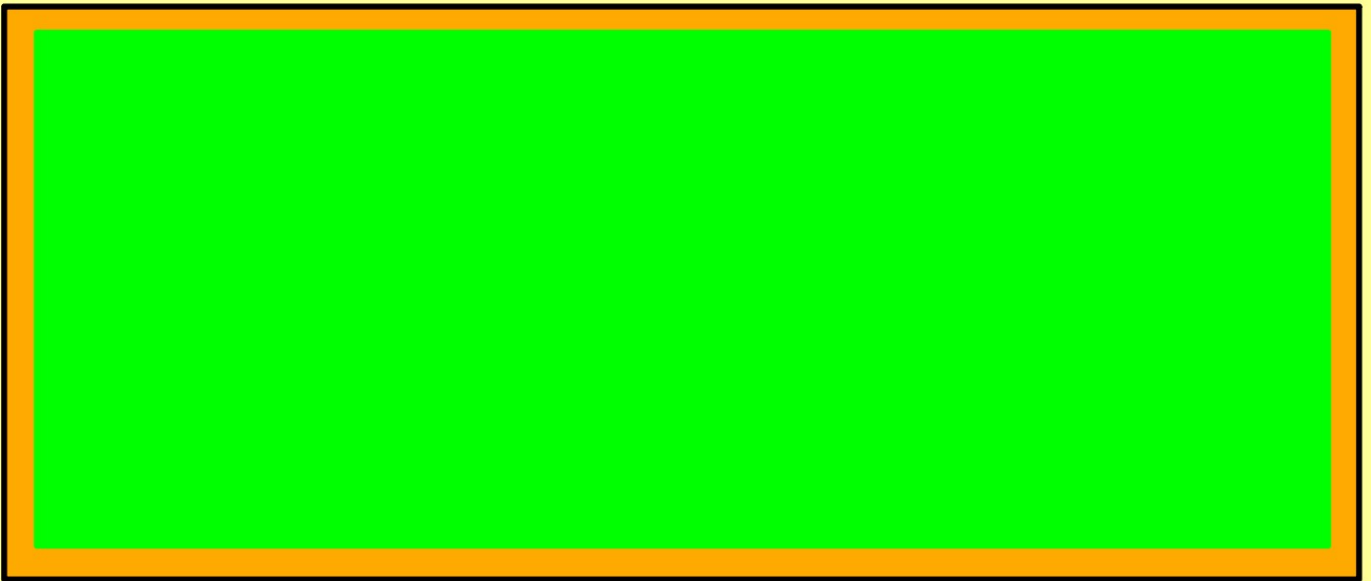

1. Draw a picture of yourself.
2. In the other boxes annotate who you are.

e.g.

What is it about you that stays the same?

What is it about you that stays the same?

There is only one of each of us. Whilst we are different things to different people, we are still individuals.

All the sides of the cube are parts of us but it is about what is inside the cube that makes us who we are.

Empathy

WALT: How can Brahman be everywhere
and in everything?

| WALT: understand what makes us who we are. | |
|---|--|
|  | I can describe some of the characteristics that make me, me, even when I am playing different roles. |
|  | I can explain some of the different roles I play whilst still being me. |
|  | I can explain how I may be special in different ways to different people. |

How do you think you did?