

Staff Safeguarding Behaviour – Quick Guide

All staff are expected to update themselves with the full policy each year and are required to confirm that fact in September annually.

Reassurance

- It is hoped that staff will be reassured by this Code. Its purpose is to promote the highest standards of care for pupils and to protect teachers and other adults from making professional misjudgements and from the potentially devastating consequences of false allegations, without compromising bona-fide school activities.

Conduct Outside work

- Staff must not engage in conduct (including through other employment) outside work which could reasonably be expected to damage the reputation and standing of the school or other members of the school community.

Setting an example

- All adults who work in schools set examples of behaviour and conduct which may be used as a model by other staff and by pupils.
- Individuals are expected to make professional judgements in order to secure the best interests and welfare of the pupils in their charge and are: warranted, proportionate, safe and applied equitably

Safeguarding Children

- Children have a right to be safe and to be treated with respect and dignity. It follows that trusted adults are expected to take reasonable steps to ensure the safety and well-being of pupils.

Staff Safeguarding Behaviour – Quick Guide

All staff are expected to update themselves with the full policy each year and are required to confirm that fact in September annually.

Outside School

- As a general rule, staff should avoid contact with pupils outside school.
- When a pupil leaves school the professional duty of care ends.
- If you are in any doubt regarding appropriate contact with a current or former pupil you should seek advice.
- It is important to emphasise that the standards of professional conduct and behaviour expected of staff outside and after school are no different from those which apply within school.

Language

- Staff must not swear, blaspheme or use any sort of offensive or inappropriate language in front of pupils.
- They should not use language which is discriminatory or demeaning in relation to gender (including gender reassignment), religion, race, nationality, ethnicity, sexual orientation, disability or age.

Online & mobile

- Staff must not communicate or connect with any current pupil or former pupil under the age of 18 on any social networking site without the written permission of the Headteacher.
- Any invitation to become a friend or similar should be politely declined and the member of staff should remind the pupil of the school rules relating to social media and personal contact details.
- Staff must not give their home telephone number or their mobile phone number to pupils.
- Staff should not make or take personal calls or engage in personal texting when they are on duty.

Physical Contact

- Unnecessary physical contact with pupils should be avoided.
- Particular care must be taken in instances which involve the same pupil over a period of time.
- In certain curriculum areas, such as PE and music, staff may need to initiate some physical contact with children, the extent of contact should be made clear and undertaken with the permission of the pupil.
- When administering intimate care staff should apply the principles set out in the Intimate care policy

Staff Safeguarding Behaviour – Quick Guide

All staff are expected to update themselves with the full policy each year and are required to confirm that fact in September annually.

Reasonable Force

- By law, any member of staff put in charge of pupils by the Head may reasonably intervene to prevent a child from:
 - hurting themselves or others
 - damaging property
 - causing disorder
- Reasonable force is only appropriate where no other form of control or restraint is available and where it is necessary to intervene. Any force used must always be the minimum needed to achieve the desired result and must be appropriate for the age, sex and understanding of the pupil and in keeping with the school's behaviour policy.
- Any use of reasonable force must be recorded using agreed school report form - see appendices

Power to Search

- Staff have powers to search pupils including to tackle cyber-bullying. Staff use this power under the specific authority of the Headteacher only and where there is good reason to do so.
- No staff member will search pupils in a blanket way.

Isolation & 1to1

- If an adult is alone with a pupil he/she should ensure that any such meeting or lesson is as visible as possible
- Every attempt should be made to ensure that the safety and security needs of both staff and pupils are met.
- No member of staff must ever be behind a locked door with a pupil. Staff should never arrange a one to one meeting in a remote or secluded area.

Staff Safeguarding Behaviour – Quick Guide

All staff are expected to update themselves with the full policy each year and are required to confirm that fact in September annually.

Relationships

- As a result of their knowledge, position and/or the authority invested in their role, all those working with children in a school are in a position of trust in relation to the pupils on roll.
- We best serve the pupils in our care by a pastoral approach that is concerned, collective and thorough, but professionally detached.

Confidentiality

- Staff must respect the privacy of pupils, parents and colleagues and must not pass confidential or sensitive information to any third parties, without checking first with the person concerned.
- Information about pupils, parents or colleagues must never be disclosed to telephone enquirers.

Comments, views & opinions

- Staff must respect the rights of others and respect those with different beliefs. Staff must not express extreme views without balance on sensitive topics such as sexual orientation or religious belief.

Infatuations & Crushes

- Although highly unlikely in the primary setting, work experience and student teachers would be particularly vulnerable.
- Other members of staff have a part to play in alerting a colleague to the possibility of an infatuation in order that appropriate steps can be taken to minimise hurt and distress and the risk to the adult concerned.

Staff Safeguarding Behaviour – Quick Guide

All staff are expected to update themselves with the full policy each year and are required to confirm that fact in September annually.

Transport

- Staff should not transport pupils in their own vehicles or alone unless this is unavoidable
- People whose suitability has not been checked will not have unsupervised contact with children being cared for.

Letters and gifts

- Staff should only write letters or send emails to individual pupils about routine matters of academic study or pastoral care, congratulations on recent achievements or other purely professional issues.
- Adults should not give presents to an individual pupil (as opposed to small gifts to a whole group) outside of the school rewards system
- It is unacceptable to receive gifts on a regular basis or of any significant value.

Socialising,

- Adults have a professional duty to set a responsible example to pupils. Adults should not put themselves in a position which may compromise their professional status. Adults should bear in mind that most pupils have mobile recording and photographic technology to hand, and the potential this has for comments or actions to be recorded out of context.
- On occasions when adults are socialising in groups, in public locations, it is important that professional standards are maintained and no opportunity is given to pupils to compromise these.

Alcohol and drugs

- Adults must not drink alcohol on school premises, unless at an approved School function.
- Use of or being under the influence of illicit drugs is strictly prohibited and will render the user liable to dismissal for gross misconduct.
- Use of or being under the influence of alcohol is strictly prohibited, including on school trips
- Any breach of these rules or of the Anti-Drugs, Alcohol and Smoking Policy may result in disciplinary action.

Staff Safeguarding Behaviour – Quick Guide

All staff are expected to update themselves with the full policy each year and are required to confirm that fact in September annually.

Use of images

- There are no circumstances that will justify adults making, downloading, possessing or distributing indecent images or pseudo-images of children (child abuse images). Accessing these images, whether using the school or personal equipment, on or off the premises, or making, storing or disseminating such material is illegal.
- Under no circumstances should any adult use school equipment to access pornography.

Photography

- Staff should not be expected to use their own personal equipment to take images of pupils at or on behalf of the school.
- Images must be deleted as soon as they are uploaded to the school system and should not be kept for longer than 5 working days on a personal device or uploaded to any other system other than school 'media' drive.
- Images must not be used in the public domain unless parental permission has been given.

Dress & Appearance

- Adults should dress and present with appearance appropriate to their professional role; this may be different to that adopted in their personal life. Staff should ensure they are dressed smartly, decently, safely and appropriately for the tasks they undertake. Those who dress or appear in a manner which could be viewed as offensive or inappropriate will render themselves vulnerable to criticism or allegation.

IT Acceptable use

- By logging on to the school's ICT systems, users agree to abide by this Acceptable Use policy and other policies that relate to the use of ICT.
- All users are expected to act in a responsible, ethical and lawful manner.
- Staff must follow authorised procedures when relocating ICT equipment or taking mobile devices offsite.
- No one may use ICT resources in violation of license agreements, copyrights, contracts or national laws.
- Users must not load or download software on any device without authorisation from IT manager