If you've forgotten what any of your spelling words mean, look them up in a dictionary (this could be an online dictionary).

If you're struggling with these spellings, practise them by completing these activities for each of your spelling words:

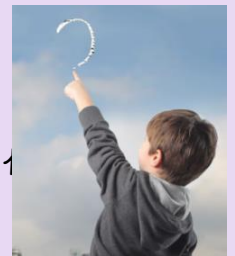

Squiggly/Bubble spelling words

Write a list of the spelling words you are struggling with twice - once in your regular writing then in

Squiggly or BUBBLE writing

Air spelling

Write the words you are struggling with one at a time in the air. First, really big, then really small

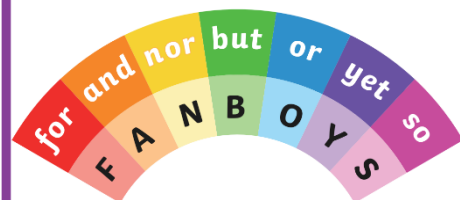

If you're confident with your spellings, complete these activities for each of your spelling words:

Write a multi clause sentence which includes a spelling word and a co-ordinating conjunction (FANBOYS).

Co-ordinating Conjunctions

There are seven co-ordinating conjunctions. They give equal importance to the words or sentences they connect.

Write a multi clause sentence which includes a spelling word and a subordinating conjunction (ISAWAWABUB).

Subordinating Conjunctions

Here are 10 of the most common subordinating conjunctions. They are used at the beginning of a subordinating clause which is a clause that doesn't make sense on its own.

If you can, ask someone to test you on your spelling words and continue to practise the ones you got wrong. You get 1 HP for each correctly spelt word!
