

Lesson 1

WALT discuss the structure of a story

Today we're going to read another chapter from 'The Daydreamer'
This one is called 'The Cat'.

Before you listen, have a think - what might Peter's daydream be?

Lesson 1

WALT discuss the structure of a story

Start by just listening to 'The Cat'
- no writing, just listening and taking it in.

The link to the video is on your documents.

WALT discuss the structure of a story

Listen to 'The Cat'.

Now you've listened to it once, listen again and make notes on the key parts of the narrative:

What happens at the beginning of the daydream?

Peter and his family are rushing around trying to get ready for their days. William Cat is getting ready to snooze.

The first one is filled in for you.
You think about the rest.

What causes Peter to begin daydreaming?

What happens in the daydream?

What causes the daydream to end?
