

Lesson 2

NASTY WRITING!

1. I can't believe it's half term soon.
2. Peter's mind was made up.
3. The glue's smell was pungent.
4. I wouldn't do that if I were you.
5. His mum's back had disappeared.
6. Its breath felt warm and its eyes didn't blink.

Add in the apostrophe in the correct place in the sentence.

Extension - explain whether it is an apostrophe to show contraction or possession.