WALT: use slow writing to plan a resolution for a fable. I can include a message for the ending.

WALT: To use slow writing to plan my resolution.

Snake arrived back at the beautiful, winding forest happier than had ever been known. He slithered enthusiastically towards the gathering crowd of animals. "Meet my friend Bird," said Snake. "She helped me escape from under the fallen tree".

"We needed to have courage and work together," declared Bird proudly. "I definitely could not have done it alone".

Bird and Snake were now the best of friends.

Today we will be writing our five sentences to create our very own resolution / ending as a paragraph.

Hopefully your now looks like this one?

We now need to add your moral which you chose during Week 2 from the list provided:

See Wednesday 13th January

Moral
(What is the moral of the story?)
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Have courage

- Always tell the truth
- Do not destroy property
- Have courage
- Keep your promises
- Do not cheat
- Treat others as you want to be treated
- Do not judge
- Be dependable
- Be forgiving
- Have integrity
- Take responsibility for your actions
- Have patience
- Be loyal
- Have respect for yourself and others
- Be tolerant of differences
- Seek justice
- Have humility
- Be generous

Lastly, we need to end the fable by adding the moral to the end.
we will write the resolution / ending for our fable.
