	WALT use pattern in poetry
	Imagine you are an animal, object from nature, household item, form of transport....
	Write lines about what you would/could do
	Use the subjunctive form to imagine being something else (If I were.....)
	Follow the same pattern in each verse/stanza: If I were....., I would/could..... (and say why.....)
	Correctly use apostrophes for possession, commas and full stops
	Create clear images for the reader using similes (like...../as......as.....)
	End your poem with a stanza/verse that begins: Make me a
	Make each of the lines a similar length in each verse
