

NASTY WRITING!

Power of 3

Writers (and speakers) often put three words, ideas, or groups of words together to make writing sound more rhythmical and to communicate images or ideas more effectively. You have to be very careful though not to go OTT and have three powerful adjectives together as it can sound too much! (Try combining one powerful adjective with two that are less powerful.)

Write 2-3 sentences (using the sentence frames below to help) that you could maybe use when editing your writing today. (You could also try 3 adjectives in a row to describe something.)

Magic of Three Sentence Frames

Three nouns (or adjective-noun combinations):

_____, _____, and _____ swam by us in the aquarium.

Three verbs:

I was _____, _____, and _____ on the trampoline.

Three parallel phrases:

At school, it's important to _____, _____, and readwritethink International Reading Association NCSS Copyright 2002 IRA/NCSS. All rights reserved. ReadWritethink materials may be reproduced for educational purposes.
_____.

Eg Fun, creativity and exciting trips out are all on the curriculum at Chesswood! (3 nouns/noun phrases)

Taking part, persevering and trying your hardest are all skills you learn at Chesswood. (3 verbs)

At Chesswood, it's important to show courtesy, care and kindness; go the extra mile and most importantly, be the best you can be! (3 parallel phrases)

PE at Chesswood is energetic, fast-paced and exciting! (3 adjs)