

Turbo GPS

Spring 1

Terminology

What do these terms mean?

KSI

adverb

verb

Year 3

subordinate clause

Year 4

adverbial

Year 5

modal verb

Can you give an example?

Word level Revision

Which of these are standard English? Which are non-standard?

I done my homework last night.

We said we ain't going to go to the shops.

The boys were looking forward to the party.

They was going to have their lunch.

Word level Year 5

What prefix can be added to the following roots?

What word class are the words?

-forest

-test

-code

-frost

What meaning does the prefix add?

Sentence Revision

Where is the adverbial?

Later that day, I heard the bad news.

We danced all night long.

We met by the train station.

As fast as he could, the kangaroo hopped.

Sentence Year 5

Adverbs of possibility

Add an adverb to show possibility to these sentences.

I will get to go to the park later if it doesn't rain.

now that it isn't raining I will get to go to the park?

I am  going to go to the park later now.

Text Revision

Replace the nouns with appropriate pronouns.

Take the fruit out of the fruit's container, please.

Tell Harry he can ride Harry's bike tomorrow.

Text Year 5

Use adverbials of number to make this more cohesive.

I study hard for my exams. I study at the weekends and during the week. My brother isn't as hardworking as me and studies twice a week.

Occasionally, every now and then,
secondly, every week, occasionally,
usually, seldomly, always,
hardly ever, periodically, often

Punctuation Revision

Punctuate this passage accurately

the mayans believed that the first men were made of mud these men couldnt worship and ended up crumbling to dust

Punctuation Year 5

Where is the parenthesis? Punctuate it accurately.

I lost my mobile an iphone at the football match.

Winston Churchill a British Prime Minister was born in Bleinheim palace.

She came across a giant scorpion a creature with giant pincers.