

After a very nice journey here, we slept in the school for the first night.

Then on Wednesday we came here; the lady is quite kind to us and the house is clean.

We sleep together in the same bed, which is a double bed and we are quite warm.

There is no bathroom here, so I do not know what we will do for a bath, and the lavatory is outside.

We spoke to Miss Watts since the place is small and poky and she is going to move us soon.

My friends are a jolly bunch and we like to meet up to compare our billets.
