

WALT: Use descriptive language

Charcoal racing over the paper.

Learning a language painting peacefully, pastels running across the perfect page, spreading colour as black as a zebra's stripes.

Magical music, as beautiful as a peacock floating through the air.

The pencil sprinted across the paper leaving a beautiful tiger behind.

The splash of our feet in the puddles.

Showing off wonderful new skills

Crashing cymbals, banging drums.

	Poetry Checklist	✓ X
	Onomatopoeia
	Personification
	Similes
	Alliteration
	Adjectives
	Writing in Verse with Capital letters at the start of a line	