

Turbo GPS

Summer

Terminology

What do these terms mean?

KS1

statement

adjective

Year 3

vowel

consonant

Year 4

possessive pronoun

Year 5

relative pronoun

relative clause

Word level Revision

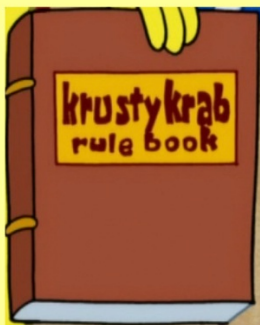

Which are incorrect? Why?

a open box

a large orange

an official rulebook

a elegant elephant

Sentence Revision

Where is the expanded noun phrase?

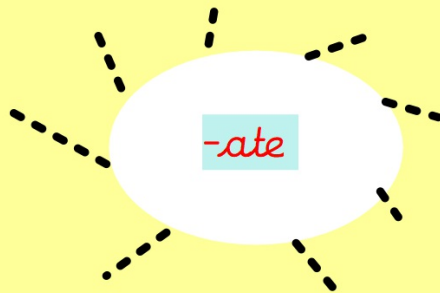

She wore her favourite glittery shoes with the large platform heel.

Add an expanded noun phrase to this sentence:

They went to visit the museum.

Word level Year 5

What words have the suffix -ate?

How does the suffix change the word class?

Root
	<input type="text"/>
Affection <input type="text"/>	Affectionate
Fortune <input type="text"/>	Fortunate
Passion <input type="text"/>	Passionate

Sentence Year 5

Order these events from least likely to the most likely.

I must do my seatbelt up.

We might go down to the pond today.

You should read up to page 120.

The doctor will see you now.

What word tells you this information? What is it called?

Text Revision

Use pronouns or proper nouns to improve cohesion and avoid repetition.

Ted and I won the trophy fair and square, so please give the trophy to Ted and I. Ted and I deserve the trophy for all of the hard work Ted and I have put in this year.

Text Year 5

Use adverbials of number to this paragraph.

You should know that Clara absolutely loves vegetables. She eats carrots, potatoes and leeks. She also eats red peppers, mushrooms and courgettes. Strangely, however, Clara doesn't eat any fruit.

Occasionally, every now and then, firstly, secondly, every week, occasionally, usually, seldomly, always hardly ever, periodically, often

Punctuation Revision

Add speech punctuation.

You'll never guess what I've just seen! yelled Ramon excitedly.

Don't touch those replied Louise. They're my brother's socks!

Punctuation Year 5

Add brackets to show parenthesis.

Mount Everest 8828m is the highest mountain in the world.

Robyn has the longest hair which is red in the class.

I miss seeing Amelia my best friend from infant school every day.

