1. There are 5 groups of 63 children. How many children are there altogether?

2. The shop has 6 boxes of 42 sweets. How many sweets are there in total?

3. 120 cats need to be shared equally into 3 cat homes. Is this possible? Tell me why.

4. There are 37 children in the class and they all need 4 books each. How many books do they have altogether?

5. 35 children arrive at a hotel. There are 7 rooms for them to stay in. How many children will be in each room? Explain how you found your answer.