

Y3 Art Knowledge Organiser— River Collage Printing

Key Knowledge

What is collage?

Collage is a work of art made by gluing pieces of different materials to a flat surface. In Marc Martin's book 'A River' each page is filled with fantastic images of places the river flows through, many of which are illustrated using collage.

This is the illustration that you will be recreating using Collage, Mark Making, Printing and Fine Detail Skills.

Recognise the key works by Marc Martin

Key Vocabulary

Word

Definition

Fabric

Cloth produced by weaving or knitting textile fibres

Pattern

A repeated decorative design

Illustration

A picture or diagram that explains or decorates.

Focus Artist— Marc Martin

Marc Martin is an artist, illustrator and picture book maker based in Melbourne, Australia. Marc draws inspiration from his surroundings, nature, animals and the city he lives in. Using mainly watercolour and pencil, his work is a world of vivid colours and rich texture

Other key illustrators in History

E H Shephard

E H Shephard was an English illustrator best known for drawing pictures for A A Milne's Winnie-the-Pooh and Kenneth Grahame's The Wind in the Willows (1931) In 1972 Shephard was awarded the Order of the British Empire (OBE) for the work.

Key Skills

Making a foam stamp

- 1) Design a pattern to use on your collage
- 2) Trace your design onto foam so it leaves a dent that you can cut out. Then go over it with a pen so it is clearer to see.
- 3) Cut out your design
- 4) Glue your design onto a wooden block, the right side down so the stamp is inverted.
- 5) Apply a thin layer of paint to the foam part of your stamp then apply the pattern to your collage.

Mark Making

Practice creating texture through using a variety of pencil types to draw patterns, lines and shapes of varying strength and form.

Adding Fine Detail

Practice using pens in a controlled manner in order to add delicate and exact detail to an image.

Quentin Blake

Quentin Blake is an English children's book illustrator and author. He has drawn illustrations for more than 300 books. He is best known for illustrating the books of Roald Dahl and writing + illustrating the Mrs Armitage series

