

Concrete

Takes the shape of the topic.

I
sleep on your bed, making it my own, and
and when you are away, I'm at home
all alone. I walk around the food
bowl, sniffing out
what's there, and if there's nothing good, I I look at you and stare. I curl up near the fire place warming up my paws, I pounce upon the scratch post, sharpening my claws.
I see a mouse in front staring straight at me, I run and try to catch it but it runs away from thee. You see I am so cute, so gorgeous with my fur, when you
stroke
my head
I
close my eyes
and purr.

Emotion

Describes emotions through descriptive language

Anger
Is the color of lava spilling from a volcano.
It happens when a vase shatters into slivers on the floor.
It sounds like a car screeching to a halt
And smells like burning toast.
