The 'Writing' section of the school's website can give me lots of support.

- We start the term writing short narratives to encourage children to think about their sentence structures. We would encourage all children to write a short narrative, setting or character description. You should try to include all of the skills, knowledge and concepts you were taught and enjoy writing for pleasure. You may write alone, with a friend or with family members. You should follow the non-negotiable posters and diary recount guide at: <https://www.chesswood.w-sussex.sch.uk/page/?title=Writing&pid=59>

- Have I self-assessed my writing? Can an adult review it with me?

For Your Information

If you want to read more about what we are currently learning in school, the following knowledge organisers will help. You are not expected to look at these, this is entirely optional:

P.E - <https://www.chesswood.w-sussex.sch.uk/attachments/download.asp?file=5255&type=pdf>

We've also set up these games based on the knowledge organizer - <https://wordwall.net/play/2293/644/472>

In Art at the moment we are working on a portrait/collage project based on either 'my interests' or 'my family interests'. So could you please think about and collect some images that you could use as part of the background to your pictures. Pictures from magazines or print-outs from the internet would be great (email them into us if you can't print them out).
