

Back of book!

NASTY WRITING!

Singular
possessive apostrophes (use examples that relate to digestive system)

Examples

The stomach's bile breaks down food.

Challenge

Place the apostrophe in the correct place.

The rectums job is to store waste.

The tongues movement pushes food around the mouth.

Choose

Mega challenge

Create two sentences of your own about the digestive system which include singular possessive apostrophes.

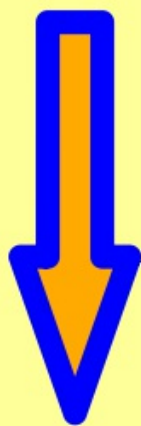

teeth

intestine

oesophagus

intestine

food

Back of book!

NASTY WRITING!

Subordinating conjunctions (relate to topic)

Examples

Food softens when saliva enters the mouth.

Mega challenge

Create two sentences of your own which include subordinating conjunctions. Your sentences must relate to the digestive system.

Choose

Back of book!

NASTY WRITING!

Fronted adverbials
(relate to report)

Examples Once chewed, food travels down the oesophagus

Challenge Place a fronted adverbial at the beginning of these sentences

_____, the anus excretes waste.

_____, teeth grind and chew food.

_____, the food moves into the intestines

Mega challenge

Use fronted adverbials in two sentences to describe functions of the digestive system.

