Spelling Assessment

Ask someone to test you on your spellings. Try to remember what you have learnt about the spelling of the phoneme.

When marking, highlight any mistakes and work out where the tricky parts are for you and write them out again three times to help your muscle memory.

Dictation

The teacher planned an exciting science lesson for the children.

The white crescent moon, shone down brightly on the green, grass field.

As I went to ascend the hill, the scent of the beautiful flowers filled my nose.
