	Write a story, which involves two children exploring a cave. When they enter the cave, they should face one of 4 problems that you will need to solve in the story, either: They discover a sleeping wild animal They discover a buried skeleton They find an injured animal There is a rockfall which traps them in a cave. When writing your story, try to use lots of descriptive language to describe the setting and your characters. Carefully chosen adjectives and verbs will help you to do this. You should also try to include some speech from the characters. The speech needs to be punctuated with inverted commas and a carefully chosen verb to let the reader know how are they saying it. To help you with ideas, there are a number of slides with examples and you can read the story Stone Age Boy that we looked at in school. Don't worry if you find the speech punctuation tricky, just give it a go and your teacher will help you when you are back in school. See how you get on using the resources on the right.	Stone Age Boy https://www.chesswood.w-sussex.sch.uk/site/data/attachments/P1103/Stone-Age-Boy.217590101.pdf Writing Flips https://www.chesswood.w-sussex.sch.uk/site/data/attachments/P1103/Writing-Flips.217591278.pdf Comic Strips 1, 2 & 3 https://www.chesswood.w-sussex.sch.uk/site/data/attachments/P1103/Stone-age-comic-dialogue-1.217591429.pdf https://www.chesswood.w-sussex.sch.uk/site/data/attachments/P1103/Stone-age-comic-dialogue-2.217591429.pdf https://www.chesswood.w-sussex.sch.uk/site/data/attachments/P1103/Stone-age-comic-dialogue-3.217591429.pdf Speech Checklist
