

Example:

NASTY WRITING!

Lesson 1

Punctuate the sentence correctly.

was the girls book Thrown onto the floor

Metacognition

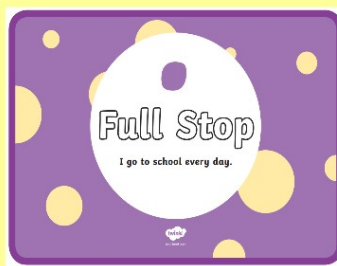

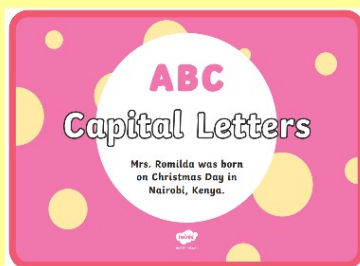

(Teacher example)

Example:

NASTY WRITING!

Lesson 1

Punctuate the sentence correctly.

doesn't everyone like maths Asked Jane quietly

Metacognition

Example:

NASTY WRITING!

Lesson 1

ABC
Capital Letters
Mrs. Romilda was born on Christmas Day in Nairobi, Kenya.

Full Stop
I go to school every day.

Commas
I put on my coat,
hat and scarf.

Question Mark
What is your favourite
part of the day?

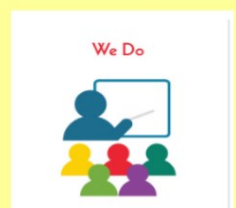

Exclamation Mark
Today was amazing!

Apostrophe
We're going to the park
to play with Sam's ball.

Inverted Commas
"Good morning!" my friend
shouted to me.

Punctuate the sentence correctly.

my Favourite lessons are english art pe and science declared peter

(Teacher models)

Example:

NASTY WRITING!

Lesson 3

How Can We Avoid Repetition?

Repetition is when something that is said or written is used over and over again, for example:

Gary ate supper when Gary got home. Gary enjoyed the food.

After its first use, instead of repeating 'Gary', we could replace further uses with pronouns to avoid repetition, such as:

Gary ate his supper when he got home. He enjoyed the food.

noun

pronoun

pronoun

alternate noun

We can also replace the noun 'supper' with another noun which means the same thing (or simply use 'it').

Using nouns/pronouns to avoid repetition.

My uniform has a tie and my uniform has a shirt also my uniform has a blue jumper.

Metacognition

(Teacher models)

Example:

NASTY WRITING!

Lesson 3

How Can We Avoid Repetition?

Repetition is when something that is said or written is used over and over again, for example:

Gary ate supper when Gary got home. Gary enjoyed the food.

After its first use, instead of repeating 'Gary', we could replace further uses with pronouns to avoid repetition, such as:

Gary ate his supper when he got home. He enjoyed the food.

noun

pronoun

pronoun

alternate noun

We can also replace the noun 'supper' with another noun which means the same thing (or simply use 'it').

Using nouns/pronouns to avoid repetition.

Mr Quick is the PE teacher, Mr Quick works with every class and Mr Quick enjoys being outside.

We Do

(Teacher models)

Example:

NASTY WRITING!

Lesson 3

How Can We Avoid Repetition?

Repetition is when something that is said or written is used over and over again, for example:

Gary ate supper when Gary got home. Gary enjoyed the food.

After its first use, instead of repeating 'Gary', we could replace further uses with pronouns to avoid repetition, such as:

Gary ate his supper when he got home. He enjoyed the food.

noun

pronoun

pronoun

alternate noun

We can also replace the noun 'supper' with another noun which means the same thing (or simply use 'it').

Using nouns/pronouns to avoid repetition.

The children enjoy learning and the children love TT Rockstars because the children are able to earn housepoints.

Then, write your own sentences about Om or Satsohi.

You Do It Alone

(Independent)