

WALT Organise facts into a plan

How are biographies organised?

Paragraphs

Chronological order

What information do they include?

Facts

Opinion

Subject specific vocabulary

WALT Organise facts into a plan

Before we write a biography we need to know some interesting facts about the subject and plan the organisation.

WALT Organise facts into a plan

What questions might we want answered?

When and where born?

Who is their family?

Where did they go to school/train?

Jobs?

Achievements/ Awards?

Best known for?

What challenges have they faced?

Metacognition

Lesson 3

WALT Organise facts into a plan

You've been given facts about Michael Rosen, we need to group them - this will be our plan.

Early Life

Family and Career

He was appointed as the fifth Children's Laureate in June 2007 until 2009. It was Jacqueline Wilson before this.

Achievements

He was born May 7, 1946 in Harrow North London.

(Teacher)

He wrote his first play, Backbone, while at Oxford. It was performed at the Royal Court Theatre in London in 1969.

(Teacher)

WALT Organise facts into a plan

You will now read the facts about Michael Rosen on the sheet on the website. Decide how to group them to create your plan for the biography. You can use my sub-headings if you would like to!

Once you have grouped the facts, ensure they are in chronological order within each section.

Challenge: Plan fronted adverbials to link ideas.

You Do It Alone

(Independent)